

D.L. TAYLOR

Mr. D.L. Taylor was born April 24, 1922 in New Salem to the late David and Jessie Miller Taylor. He passed on to eternal life on Jan. 19, 2001. Mr. Taylor attended Crockett High School and served in the United States Navy from Jan. 1942 until he was honorably discharged in Oct. 1946. He was united in marriage to Dorothy L. Hampton in Oct. 1947.

Survivors include wife of 53 years, Dorothy Lee Hampton; four children, Janice B. Howard and husband, Bonnie Howard Sr., David L. Taylor IV and wife Janice Marsh Taylor, Gerald M. Taylor and Kenneth Taylor of Houston; five grandsons, two granddaughters; 13 great-grandchildren; three brothers, Luther Taylor and wife, Betty of Frostwood, Oh., Rev. Benny Taylor and wife, Leola of Houston, and David Taylor of Hyattville, Md.; many loving nieces and nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

Funeral services for Mr. Taylor were held Saturday, Jan. 27 at 2p.m. in the Jones Memorial United Methodist Church in Houston, with the Rev. J. R. Hampton officiating. Final resting-place is in Houston Memorial Gardens in Pearland.

Barkley Mortuary