

Edward Earl Thomas

LIVINGSTON – Funeral services for Edward Earl Thomas, 49, of Livingston were held Saturday, May 5, 2007, at Macedonia Baptist Church, with Bishop Eldridge Nickson officiating. Interment followed in St. Andrew's Cemetery in Onalaska. A memorial service was held Friday at Garner Chapel Baptist Church.

Mr. Thomas died April 28 in Memorial Medical Center – Livingston.

He was born Oct. 10, 1957, the son of the late Edward (Ned) Thomas and Ella Lee Collins Thomas. He graduated from Livingston High School and was employed by Thomas Supply for 27 years. He was a Baptist and attended the Martial Arts Academy. Survivors include his wife, Veronica Thomas of Livingston, whom he married on Sept. 26, 1979 in Livingston; mother, Ella Lee Thomas of Livingston; son, Edward Earl Thomas Jr.; daughters, Temeka Nickson of Many, La., Kaneisha Landers of Livingston and Renita Wallace (Arthur) of Houston; sister, Stephanie Evans (Freddie); brothers, Marcell Thomas (Monesia) and Brandon Thomas (Marcie), all of Livingston; sisters-in-law, Felecia Harris of Houston, Pamela Bogany (Ronnie) of Livingston and Velma Darden (Rev. Michael) of Livingston; brothers-in-law, Robert Parker and Bishop Eldridge Nickson (Rosetta), all of Livingston; grandchildren, Tatyana Nickson, Shykia Phillips, Keimoria Renfro, Jhermya Landers, Zoe Wallace and Ronnie Wallace and a host of other relatives and friends.

Pallbearers were Don Holve, Jassen Holve, Elmer May, Mario Fiscal, Yancy Williams and Jacob Kruse. Honorary pallbearers were Edward Earl Thomas Jr., Marcell Thomas, Freddie Evans Sr., Brandon Thomas and Freddie Evans Jr.

Duncan Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.