

DAN M. THOMPSON, JR.

Crockett friends and former neighbors have received the obituary of Mr. Dan M. Thompson, Jr., 77 from Bellville. Mr. Thompson a U.S. Army veteran, was a life-time member of the CIO-AFL and was a retired from Crown Petroleum after 39 years. He and his wife Athena moved from Houston to Crockett in 1983, building a home at 116 Homewood Drive. Here they became active in Homewood, Pecan, Pineview and Plum neighborhood activities. They were also active workers of the Houston County Visitors Center/Museum, assisting with exhibits and as a guide for tour groups and at the Central Baptist Church. Dan's continuing illness forced them to relocate to Bellville in 1991 to be nearer family. Mr. Thompson passed away at their Bellville home Feb. 24. Funeral services were Feb. 27 in the Family Chapel at Forest Park Lawndale Cemetery. Survivors include three sons, two grandchildren, a brother, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, numerous nieces and nephews and his beloved wife of 55 years, Athens. Her mailing address presently is 134 Machehl drive, Bellville. 77418

Vet