

Trinity Standard
6-22-06

Joe Vinson Thornton

TRINITY - Services for Joe Vinson Thornton, 29, of Georgetown were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday, June 20, 2006, in the chapel of Cook-Walden-Davis Funeral Home in Georgetown.

Graveside services were held at 11 a.m. Wednesday, June 21, in the Cedar Grove Cemetery in Trinity.

Mr. Thornton died Friday, June 16, in Georgetown.

He was born April 16, 1977, in Conroe, the son of Joe and Pat Thornton. Growing up in Georgetown, he participated in a number of activities included Little League baseball, skate boarding, football, soccer, basketball, BMX bicycle racing, bull riding and team roping on his horse, Montana.

Mr. Thornton was a welder by trade and owned his own welding business for a number of years.

Survivors include his parents, Joe Thornton of Magnolia and Pat Thornton of College Station; a brother, Bobby Thornton of Houston; his grandmother, Marion Inez Thornton of Trinity; his grandfather, Earl Boone of Houston; and a number of other relatives.

Honorary pallbearers included Richard Wills, Byron David, Brad David, Toby Anderson, C.W. Anderson, Charles Sizemore, Trey Sizemore, Gary Hall, Greg Hall, Scott Hall, Jason Rosenthal, Matt Parks, Mark Browder, Justin Bohanan, Matt Manhart and Forrest Sasser.

Cook-Walden-Davis Funeral Home of Georgetown directed the arrangements.