

Trinity Standard
Dec 15, 2005

✓ Dominik
Tavien Tomme

TRINITY - Services for Dominik Tavien Tomme, 5-month-old son of Kalyn Lively and Blake Gentry Tomme, were held at 11 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 13, 2005, at the Extreme Life Center in Trinity with pastors Shane Hoeverman, Lynn Gentry and Jim Parrish officiating. Burial followed in the Cedar Grove Cemetery in Trinity.

The child, a resident of Huntsville, died Friday, Dec. 9, in Texas Children's Hospital in Houston as the result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident.

Survivors include his parents; paternal grandparents, Robert and Melanie Tomme; maternal grandmother, Denise Santini; maternal great-grandparents, Ann and Scotty Schott and James and Junet Stanley; paternal great-grandmother, Maxine Gentry; a maternal great-great-grandmother, Irene Stepp; three aunts, Shondi Wagner, Leslie Tomme and Taylor Tomme; three uncles, Charles Woodward, James Woodward and Christopher Yish; and a number of cousins and other relatives.

Funeral services were arranged by the office of Trinity.