

Pennington
171466

OMA BELL DOMINY TROUTMAN

Mrs. Oma Bell Dominy Troutman, age 86, of Lufkin, previously of Kennard, passed away Wednesday, June 6, 2001 in Southland Healthcare Center in Lufkin. Mrs. Troutman was born May 12, 1915 in Trinity County and lived in Kennard for 32 years until moving to Lufkin in 1994 where she had lived for the past seven years. She was a member of the Dorcas Sunday school class. Mrs. Troutman was previously a member of the First Baptist Church Kennard and a member of the WMU.

NCC 6/14/2001

Survivors include sons, Tim Troutman and wife, Linda of Lufkin, and Daniel Carl Troutman; grandchildren, rent Troutman of Lufkin, Lance Troutman and wife, Misty of Las Vegas, Nv., and Tonya Troutman, of Lufkin; brother, Bradley Dominy and wife, Treva of Riverside; sister, Mary Jane Hill of Kennard; sister-in-law, Billie Dominy of Kennard; dear friend and roommate, Adeila Starr of Lufkin; and numerous nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

Mrs. Troutman was preceded in death by her husband, Ernest Edward Troutman, infant son, Ernest Nelson Troutman; father, Clarence Henry Dominy; mother, Lillie Louella Goodman Dominy; brothers, an infant brother and Clay C. Dominy; and sisters, Mildred Dominy and Hildred Dominy Toole.

Funeral services for Mrs. Troutman were held Friday, June 8 at 2:30 p.m. in the Callaway-Allee Memorial Chapel with the Rev. Jim Durham and the Rev. John Withem officiating. Interment followed in the Pennington Cemetery.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home