

Trinity standard

Doris Helen Myrick Trow

TRINITY – Services for Doris Helen Myrick Trow, 74, of Trinity were held Tuesday, Nov. 25, 2003, at the First Unit with the Rev. Kevin King officiating.

Burial followed in the Cedar Grove Cemetery in Trinity.

Mrs. Trow died at her residence on Saturday, Nov. 22.

She was born Sept. 3, 1929, in Forest, Miss., the daughter of the late Daniel Houston and Cassie McClellan Myrick the late Col. Robert "Bob" Trow. Following her husband's retirement from military service, the couple moved to Trinity. She attended Sam Houston State College, majoring in art. She loved gardening, NASCAR racing and blues and jazz. Mrs. Trow was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Trinity.

Survivors include three daughters, Lisa Trow of Austin, Tara Casper and friend, Jerry Cheatham, of Trinity; and Mark husband, Robert, of Austin; two brothers and sisters-in-law, Johnny and Reba Myrick of Tyler and Kenny and Dian Sandy; two sisters and brothers-in-law, Mimi and Greg Weston of Big Sandy and Shirley and Richard Hogenmiller in-law, Jo Myrick of Friendswood; four grandchildren, Katie Renaude, Tarisa Casper, Stephen Casper and Aiden E Frank McGee; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Waller-Thomton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.
