

Trinity Standard - March 11, 1999

231

84083

Homan Tullos

Lafayette, LA--Funeral services for Homan Tullos, 77, were conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Delhomme Bertrand Chapel of the Flowers with Rev. Ira Robinson, Associate Pastor of Asbury United Methodist Church officiating.

Several musical selections were rendered by Valerie Andrus.

Mr. Tullos was a native of Trinity, the son of the late Clarence Tullos and the former Sally Stevens.

Raised in Trinity, he graduated from Trinity High School and joined the U. S. Navy during World War II.

Employed in the oilfield, he worked in Houston and Franklin, LA. In 1967, he moved to Lafayette and started Hole Control Tools, later expanding it into Kelly Bushing Tool, Hard Metal Welding, CATCO, and Tullos Enterprise.

He was a member of the Joe Werner Lodge #553 AF&AM, in Trinity.

He enjoyed golf and was a member of the Acadian Hills Country Club and Toro Hills Country Club.

He loved to fish and care for and build homes for Martins.

Survivors include his wife, the former Alecia Sheppard, Lafayette; one daughter, Teenilee Tullos, Lafayette; two grand daughters, Lisa Michelle Boos, Duson and Mrs. David (Christeeni Carolyn) Farrell, Lafayette; one brother, Sam Tullos, Trinity; one sister, Marjorie Ginn, Lufkin; and one great grandchild, Gabrielle Elizabeth Thibodeaux.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Leon Tullos and Morris Tullos.

Pallbearers included Dennis Young, Wayne Woods, Andre Arceneaux, Ben Hayden, David Ferrell and Wayne Currie.

The funeral was under the direction of Delhomme Funeral Home.