Pauline Turner

GROVETON -- Services for Pauline (Granny) Turner, 88, were held at 11 a.m. Monday, Jan. 21, 2002, at the Waller-Thornton Funeral Home in Groveton with the Rev. Paul Woodworth officiating.

Burial followed in the Forest Park Westheimer Cemetery in Houston.

Mrs. Turner died Friday, Jan. 18, in Crockett.

Known as a loving mother, grandmother, sister and great-grandmother, Mrs. Turner was a homemaker for most of her life. Before her retirement, she also worked as a school tax assessor-collector and served as an election judge for a number of years.

She loved gardening as well as sewing. She would hand sew all of her children's clothing and clothing for friends.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Hobson Turner; a daughter, Sandra Turner; a great-grandson, Richard Hairell; and a great-granddaughter, Belinda Hairell.

Survivors include a daughter and son-in-law, JoAn and Joe Tissue of Houston; three sisters, Ilene Sublett, Jewell Dean Neall and Imogene Logan; two brothers, Dwight Lindsay and Buddy Lindsay; four grandchildren, Rickey Hairell and his wife, Marcella, Tina Hairell, Mike Tissue and his wife, Bridget, and Michelle Manous and her husband, Brad; and numerous great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Groveton directed the arrangements.
