

Violet Zadie House Turpin

GROVETON -- Services for Violet Zadie House Turpin, 91, of Ratcliff and formerly of Groveton, were held at 10 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 16, 2002, at the Groveton First Baptist Church with Bros. Lewis Jones, Gerald Hollis and Kenneth Wooley officiating.

Burial followed in the Rosewood Cemetery in Humble.

Mrs. Turpin died Tuesday, Feb. 12, in Crockett.

She was born April 8, 1910, in Edna. Mrs. Turpin was a homemaker and a member of the Groveton First Baptist Church and the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Survivors include two sons and daughters-in-law, Joseph E. and Betty Joe House of Ratcliff and Donald Raymond and Beverly House of Caldwell; three daughters and two sons-in-law, Joyce Turner of Groveton, Estelle and Robert Brandenburg of Somerville and Carolyn and Clifton McWhorter of North Zulch; a brother, Allen G.

Redmond of New Caney; 14 grandchildren; 18 great-grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren; and numerous other relatives and friends.

Pallbearers included David C. House, Joe House Jr., John Brooks, David Brooks, Donald House II and David House.

The family has asked the memorial contributions be made to the Groveton First Baptist Church Youth Group.

Groveton Funeral Home directed the arrangements.