Phyllis Gay Vaughn

TRINITY -- Services for Phyllis Gay Vaughn, 88, were held at 1 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 4, 2003, in the Waller-Thornton Funeral Home Chapel with Bro. Grady Gladden officiating.

Graveside services were held at 2 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 6, in the Anthony Cemetery in Anthony, N.M. with Bro. Jim Horton officiating.

Mrs. Vaughn died Nov. 3 in Huntsville.

She was born Feb. 23, 1915, in Hunter, Ark., one of seven children born to the late Nancy Jane McIntire Bradney and Joseph Francis Bradney.

At the age of 18 she met Charley Roy Vaughn and the couple was married in 1933. During their marriage they resided in a number of places, including Big Woods and Wheatley, Ark., and the XIT Ranch in Texas.

In 1940, the couple adopted a baby girl, Jackie Lynn, and in 1949 the family moved to Anthony, N.M. where she was employed by a telephone company for more than 20 years. She also worked for the Bell Telephone system in El Paso.

Survivors include her daughter, Jackie Lynn Price; three grandchildren and their spouses, Brent and Rhonda Price, Kent and Patti Price and Gay and Scott Gillespy; three great-grandchildren, Kent Allen Price and his wife, Dayla, Brent Price Jr. and Emily Price; a special niece and her husband, Judy and Tony Hernandez; nieces, Bessie Peterson and Jo Butcher and special friend, Moody Wrotten; and a nephew, Charley Vaughn.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.
