

Corinth

158131

SMITH VICKERS

Funeral services for Smith Vickers, 58, of Grapeland, were held at 2 p.m. Monday, in Oak Grove Baptist Church near Grapeland with the Rev. Davy Jo Hobson and the Rev. Lynn Stroud officiating. Burial was in Corinth Cemetery at Kennard.

Mr. Vickers was born on Dec. 25, 1933, in Houston County to the late Curtis L. Vickers and Mrs. Wylie Harkins Vickers and died in Houston County Hospital in Crockett Saturday. He was employed as a truck driver for Walmart Corporation. He was a member of the Oak Grove Baptist Church near Grapeland.

He was preceded in death by his father, Curtis Vickers, a sister, Patricia Ann Levan and by a brother, John Ervin Vickers.

Survivors include his wife, Virginia Vickers of Grapeland; his mother, Wylie Harkins Vickers of Crockett; one daughter, Mrs. Fred (Debby) Wingo of Longview; one son, James (Bo) Vickers of Grapeland; four sisters, Geraldine Murmur of Rosharon, Mary Lee Burden of Houston, Jeanette Coleman of Spring and Cynthia Jo Foster of New Waverly; one brother, Charles Edward Vickers of Plano, four grandchildren, James Casey Vickers, Charles Clet Vickers, Cannon Smith Vickers and Jamie Lynn Driskell.

Pallbearers were Jimmy Moffitt, Wayne Harrison, Herb Prichett, Mitchell Huff, Bobby Sar Harkins, Avon Hicks, Travis Millhall and Mac Douglas.

Balley & Foster Funeral Home