

W.C.C. Sept. 2, 04

Campbell

WALTER "SAM"
WAGNER

Mr. Walter "Sam" Wagner, age 89, passed away Wednesday, August 18, 2004 in Crockett. Mr. Wagner was born September 22, 1914 in Crockett to the parentage of the late Walter and Georgia Wagner.

Mr. Wagner attended Salt Branch School in the Halls Bluff Community. Mr. Wagner union with Union Chapel Baptist Church where he later became a deacon and was the Superintendent of the Sunday School.

Mr. Wagner united in Holy Matrimony with Jewel Delane on January 19, 1935. To this union six children were born.

Survivors include his loving wife of 69 years, Jewel Wagner; two daughters Georgia Murphy, of Crockett and Crezette Evans (Rev. Oliver Evans), of Fort Worth; two sons Jimmy Wagner and Sammy Wagner, both of Crockett; eight grandchildren; 20 great-grandchildren; four great-great-grandchildren; son-in-law Clarence Jolley; and numerous nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.

Preceded in death by his parents Walter and Georgia Wagner; five sisters; two brothers; one son; one daughter; one grandson; and one granddaughter.

Funeral services for Walter "Sam" Wagner were held Monday, August 23, at 11:00 a.m. at Union Chapel Baptist Church in Halls Bluff Community with the Rev. Elliott Marshall and the Rev. Precious Gipson officiating. Interment followed in the Campbell Cemetery.

Active Pallbearers were Wayne Davis, Cory Murphy, Clarence Jolley, Rev. Terrence Howard, Rev. Oliver Evans and Patrick Delane.

Honorary Pallbearers were Jimmy Wagner, Sammy Wagner, Jr., Julian Howard, Arthur Murphy, Jr., Sammy Wagner, Sr., Rodney Jolley, Kenneth Jolley and Aaron Davis, Jr.

Barkley Mortuary