

Marvin Walker

TRINITY -- Services for Marvin Walker, 70, of Montgomery were held at 2 p.m. Saturday, May 10, 2003, in the Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity with the Rev. Larry Bewley officiating.

Burial followed in the Center Hill Cemetery in Oakhurst.

Mr. Walker died Wednesday, May 7, in Tomball.

He was born March 31, 1933, in Point Blank and was a self-employed carpenter. He was a veteran of the U.S. Army.

Survivors include four daughters and their spouses, Clarence Walker, Gary and Debbie Walker, Ronnie and Margaret Walker and Dianne and Kerry Webb; five brothers and sisters and their spouses, Dorothy Smith, Theodore "Son" Walker, J.D. "Red" and Viola Walker, Embery and Ruby Walker, Falba and Durwood Bruce; 10 grandchildren, Joey, Kerry, Becky, Gary, Austin, Dede, Mandy, Ashley, Jamie and Alyssa; and seven great-grandchildren, Ally, Jordan, Hailey, Tyler, Danny, Chloe and Kylee.

Pallbearers included Gary Walker, Donnie Sims, Kerry Walker, Jeremy Whitley, Ricky Johnson, Carroll Smith, Wayne Layne and Ronnie Walker.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.