

Friday, January 8, 1999
Grapeand Messenger

Lorna Jean Wardell

Services for Lorna Jean Wardell, 54, of Palestine, will be at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Wardell Family Cemetery with the Rev. Mike Drinkard officiating. Arrangements are under the direction of Herrington/Land of Memory Funeral Home.

Mrs. Wardell died Wednesday at her home in Palestine.

She was born Sept. 16, 1944, in Athens, to Wylie C. and Eunice May Nichols Adair.

Mrs. Wardell was a longtime resident of Anderson County and was a Baptist. She worked as a sales clerk and as a waitress.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Leslie H. "Bill" Wardell, in 1996; and by a brother, Jerry Adair, in 1992.

Mrs. Wardell is survived by a son, James Lee Wardell of Palestine; daughter, Lee Jean Wardell of Palestine; brothers, Morris "Mark" Adair of Columbus, Miss., F.G. Adair of Tyler, Dickie Adair and K. Adair, both of Ennis, and Michael Adair of Seagoville.

Visitation will be from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. today at the funeral home.