

Roy Weaver

ONALASKA - Services for Roy Weaver, 68, of Trinity were held at 10 a.m. Tuesday, Jan. 14, 2003, at the Cochran Funeral Home Chapel in Onalaska with the Rev. Dale Snell officiating.

Burial followed in the Cedar Grove Cemetery in Trinity.

Mr. Weaver died Sunday, Jan. 12, at his Trinity residence.

He was born Aug. 6, 1934 in Houston, the son of Jesse and Vergie Ethel (Sales) Weaver. He was preceded in death by his parents; a son, James Weaver-Redmond; and two brothers, Marion Weaver and Leland Weaver.

Survivors include his wife, Kaye Weaver; four sons, Leroy U. Weaver of Kingwood, Richard L. Weaver of Porter, Robert L. Weaver of Houston and Pete M. Weaver of Splendora; five daughters, Kathryn L. Smitherman of Blanchard, Cynthia L. Verdone of Houston, Christine K. Urban of Conroe, Barbara Thompson of Kingwood and Cindy Weaver-Redmond of Houston; a brother, Malcolm L. Weaver of Buffalo; a sister, Ollie C. Allee of Houston; 13 grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers included Glen Waldrop, George Coleman, Harland Zeigler, Tony Ratcliff, Dale Cornier and Ed Tindall. Honorary pallbearers included Kenneth Wagner.

Cochran Funeral Home of Onalaska directed the arrangements.