GRETA PAULINE
"POLLY" WHATLEY

Mrs. Greta Pauline "Polly" Whatley was born June 19, 1914 in Galveston to Walker Stewart and Evelyn Pearl Scott. Mrs. Whatley spent her early years raising her children and owned a dress shop in Love-lady 1949-1951. In 1951 she went to work for the Corps of Engineers, retiring in 1973.

Mrs. Whatley began devoting herself to God's work, attending First Baptist, Pine Drive Baptist, The Village Church and Living Faith Outreach in Dickinson and participated in dramas, food ministries, counseling, jail ministries, teaching and many other church activities.

Mrs. Whatley has left a rich spiritual heritage to her family and friends and prayers are still being answered today. Mrs. Whatley loved her family and friends with such passion and faithfulness that her legacy will continue forever and she can never be replaced in our hearts.

Survivors include Michael Whatley (Darlene) children Shane Whatley (Gayla) and Cindy Cosgrove (Keith), Paula Spicher (Buddy) children Suzette Johnson, Andrea Ladd, Matthew Spicher, David Spicher and Angela Spicher, Annette Jackson (Edward) children Damon Jackson, Valary Cibulski (Jack) and Timpi Martinez, Martha Desormeaux (Larry) children Monica and Dustin Desormeaux; great-grandchildren Ryan and Rachel Whatley, Joshua Purcell, Chris Cosgrove, Corey Ladd, Krsitin and Corbin Johnson, James and Brandy Spicher, Lilianna and Logan Jackson, Loren, Carson and Dylan Cibulski, Mileena, Angel and Vanessa Martinez and Madilynn Desormeaux; and caretakers Lana Alston, Vera Whitfield and Sharson Gibson.

Preceded in death by her husband Woodrow Wilson Whatley; parents Walker Stewart and Evelyn Pearl Scott; only brother Walker C. Stewart.

Funeral Services for Mrs. Greta Pauline "Polly" Whatley were held Monday, January 16, 2006 at 3:00 p.m. at Forest Park East Funeral Home. Interment followed in Forest Park East Cemetery in Webster.
