Alice K. White

TRINITY - Graveside services for Alice K. White, 85, were held at 2 p.m. Monday, Dec. 30, 2002, in the Salem Cemetery near Weldon with Bro. Neil Kemper officiating.

Mrs. White died Dec. 24.

She was born Feb. 8, 1917, in Crook, the daughter of Franklin Porter Knox and Minnie Ola Whitehead Knox. She was known for her cooking, especially her homemade biscuits, jelly, fried chicken and blackberry cobbler. She enjoyed cooking for family gatherings as well as spending time with her children.

Her hobbies also included crocheting, quilting, sewing, gardening, canning and fishing. She enjoyed attending church and exhibited her Christian beliefs in her day-to-day life.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Jack White; a brother, Ben Knox; and two sisters, Marnie Knox and Ruth Ferguson.

Survivors include two brothers and sisters-in-law, Howard and Ann Knox of Stockdale and Alton and Dorothy Knox of Choctaw, Okla.; two sisters and a brother-in-law, Clemie Dyer of San Marcus, Calif., and Leona and Doug Nash of Albuquerque, N.M.; and a number of nieces, nephews, cousins, great-nieces, great-nephews, great-great-nieces and great-great-nephews.

Waller-Thonton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.
