

KERMIT "MONEY" WHITE

Mr. Kermit "Money" White, age 86, passed away Saturday, February 16, 2002. Mr. White was born August 19, 1915 to Elina Smith and Van White of Navasota. Mr. White grew up in Houston and attended Burris and Booker T. Washington High School. Mr. White served his country honorably in the United States Army here and overseas. Mr. White worked for Borden Milk Company in Houston for 35 years before retiring.

Survivors include son Keith Hargaves; nephews Drusheldon McCoy, Tilford Cheek, Darrell Cheek, Deric McCoy, Geffery McCoy, Jonathan McCoy, Darren Booker, and James T. Ashford; nieces Twinkle McCoy, Ed Leah Booker, Tiffany McCoy, and Carolyn, Lina and Zelma of Kansas; numerous great and great-great nieces and nephews and other relatives.

Preceded in death by his parents, sisters, Verna McCoy and Willie Mae Smith, and brother, Exter Ashford.

Pallbearers great nephews and friends. Honorary Pallbearers nephews and first cousins.

Funeral services for Mr. Kermit "Money" White were held February 20, at 11:00 a.m. in The Chapel of James Stripling Funeral Home in Austin with the Rev. Fred Banks, Bishop Dan Goodman, and the Rev. Oran Williams officiating. Interment followed in The Veterans Memorial Cemetery.

Barkley Mortuary

*Vet
Veterans Mem
Cemetery*