Warren W. Whiton

HUNTSVILLE - Services for Warren W. Whiton, 77, of Trinity

~~Books make great gifts~~

was held at 11 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 16, 2005, in the Dorcas Wills Memorial Baptist Church in Trinity.

Burial followed in the Brooke Cemetery in Huntsville.

Mr. Whiton died Saturday, Aug. 13, in The Woodlands.

Born April 3, 1928, in Wakefield, Mass., he was the son of Arthur E. and E. Marion Whiton. He was graduated from Tufts University in Medford, Mass. in 1950 with a Bachelor of Science degree in chemical engineering.

Mr. Whiton served in the U.S. Army Chemical Corps during the Korean Conflict and upon returning to civilian life he moved to Salt Lake City, Utah in 1953 where he met and married his wife of 52 years, Marguerite C. Whiton.

He was transferred to El Paso in 1955 with ASARCO where the couple adopted two daughters.

In 1962, they moved to Alvin where he accepted employment with Monsanto Co. During his 23 years with the firm, because of mergers, he was employed by Conoco and DuPont. He retired in 1985 and moved to Trinity.

Since coming to Trinity, he has been active in the Dorcas Wills Memorial Baptist Church, serving as a deacon. He also has been an active Gideon for the past several years.

Mr. Whiton was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Norman E. Whiton of Portland, Maine.

Survivors include his wife, Marguerite Whiton; two daughters and a son-in-law, Marlene Whiton of Dallas and Melanie and Ronnie Riemer of Pearland; four grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that donations be made to the local Gideon camp, P.O. Box 1005, Crockett, Texas 75835 or the Childcare Center, Dorcas Wills Memorial Baptist Church, P.O. Box 112, Trinity, Texas 75862.

Brooke Funeral Home and Cemetery of Huntsville directed the arrangements.
