

Pennington

IDA MAE WILLIAMS

Mrs. Ida Mae Williams, age 90, of Cypress, formerly Pennington, passed away Thursday, April 26, 2001 in the Tomball Regional Hospital. Mrs. Williams was born Nov. 26, 1910 in Ratcliff and had been living in Cypress for the past 12 years, previously living in Pennington. She was a housewife and a member of the Pennington Baptist Church.

Survivors include daughter, Martha Goodson and husband, Charles of Cypress; grandchildren, Gary Goodson and wife, Michele of Cypress, and Gayle Christ and husband, Russell of Houston; great-grandchildren, Lauren and Madison Goodson of Cypress, and Hayley and Kelsey Chirst of Houston; sister-in-law, Madeline Hodges of Crockett and Anita Hodges of Lufkin; and numerous nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

Mrs. Williams was preceded in death by her husband, O.A. "Bud" Williams; brothers, Dye Hodges and Robert Hodges; and sister, Annie Driskell.

Funeral services for Mrs. Williams were held Sunday, April 29 at 2:30 p.m. in the Pennington Baptist Church with the Rev. Charles Butler officiating. Interment followed in the Pennington Cemetery.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home