

HCC
1-18-98

Jasper

LILLIAN LOUIS (COOK)
WILLIAMS

Sis. Lillian Louis (Cook) Williams was the seventh daughter born to the late Norman and Samantha Cook on October 7, 1928, in Crockett. She attended Post Oak Community School, graduated from Crockett High School, and attended Mary Allen College, where she perfected her singing talent. She was a member of St. Luke Missionary Baptist Church faithfully serving in Mission #II-Dorcas Circle, the sanctuary choir, decorating committee, clothing and food ministry, and regularly attended Sunday Church School until her health no longer permitted. She was the owner of Williams Antiques, was a member of the Crockett Community Choir until it was disbanded, and was known throughout the community for extending a helping hand to others.

Sis. Lillian Williams passed away on Jan. 11, 1998, in a Lufkin Hospital at age 69.

Survivors are: devoted husband of 51 years; Willie Elliott Williams; loving daughter and son-in-law, Judy Elaine and General Moore Jr., two granddaughters, Youlanda Renea Branford and husband, Ernest DeWitt Branford, and Tiffany Elaine Moore all of Crockett; two grandsons, General Moore, III and wife, Trina, Sean Moore and wife Georgia-Anna of Houston; six great-grandchildren, Keyanna and Kayla Branford, Jazmine, and ~~Youlanda Moore, Jeffery and~~ Jeremy Moore; four sisters, Reva Colter (second mother) of Crockett, Mageline Kizzee of Huntsville, Lilly Faye Montgomery of Houston, Erma Robinson of Cleveland, Ohio, an adopted daughter; Kathy Simmons and husband, Joseph of Houston; a special niece and nephew, Pearlie M. Thompson and Robert R. Thompson of Crockett; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and numerous friends.

Funeral services were held Saturday, Jan. 17 at 11 a.m. St. Luke Missionary Baptist Church, 315 South Second, Crockett, the pastor, the Rev. Ralph P. Taylor, officiated. Eternal resting place was in Jasper Cemetery.

Palbearers were Clarence Colter, Robert Thompson, Channon Jefferson, G. B. Burton, Cedrick Thompson, Eugene Patton, J. Otis Barrs, Smith Gardner.

McClain-Clebourn Funeral Service