

Polk Co. Ent

Feb. 3, 2008

Sissie Linn Williams

LIVINGSTON – Funeral services for Sissie Linn Williams, 60, were held Monday, Jan. 28, 2008, at the Indian Village Assembly of God, with Bro. David Busby officiating. Burial followed in the Indian Reservation Cemetery.

Mrs. Williams died Friday, Jan. 25, in Memorial Medical Center – Livingston. She was born Aug. 5, 1947 in Livingston, the daughter of Lindsay and Alma Walker Stafford. She was preceded in death by her parents; sisters, Lydia Walker and Quincey Battise and brothers, Jessie Stafford and Clyde Stafford.

Mrs. Williams was a devoted member of the Indian Reservation Assembly of God Church. She was a member of the Praise and Worship Team. She was known as a devoted stepmother and wife and as someone who enjoyed traveling and nature walks. Survivors include her husband, Sherman Williams of Livingston; brothers, Leroy Stafford and Roscoe Stafford, both of Livingston; stepson, Grayson Williams and wife Dana of The Woodlands; stepdaughters, Vanessa Battise and husband Todd of Livingston and Felicia Littlecreek of Oklahoma City, Okla.; a host of grandchildren, nieces and nephews and one great-grandchild.

Pallbearers included Roby Williams, Rydell Williams, Daniel Renfro, Larry Langley, Sidney Poncho, Jerry Langley and Tod Battise.