

Creek

CHARLES (CHUCK) WILLINGHAM

Mr. Charles (Chuck) Willingham, age 70 of Cleveland, passed away Tuesday, November 4, 2003 in the Conroe Regional Medical Center. Mr. Willingham was born January 23, 1933 in Jewett and had been living in Cleveland for the past five years, previously living in Humble. Mr. Willingham was a retired used car dealer.

Survivors include his wife Dollie Willingham, of Cleveland; children Brenda Soley and husband Steve, of Kingwood, Glenda Cardin and husband Bruce, of Houston, Michael Willingham, of Melbourne Beach, Fla, Tammy Willingham, of Indialantic, Fla.; step-children Billy Ramsey and wife Jan, of Lytton Springs, La Rhonda Ramsey, of Dale, Dwayne Delacerda, of Lytton Springs, Larry Delacerda and wife Shannon, of Pasadena, Edward Delacerda, of Lytton Springs; grandchildren Glen Corder, Danny Willingham, Nicole Lewis, Chris Lewis, Chase Delacerda, John Delacerda, Miranda Delacerda,

---

Bryan Stuteville; great-grandchild Cade Corder; Donna Guerra and husband Bobby, Jan Menchaca and husband Zeke; brothers Gary Willingham, Bill Willingham and wife Sheila; numerous nieces, nephews, and friends.

Funeral services for Mr. Charles (Chuck) Willingham were held Saturday, November 8, at 2:00 p.m. in the Callaway-Allee Memorial Chapel with the Rev. Gary Nichols officiating. Interment followed in the Creek Cemetery.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home

---