

Rocky Mountain

HCC
Sept 1, 2005

WALLACE G. WILMORE

Wallace G. Wilmore, also known as "Tidy" was born January 8, 1921 in Crockett to the late Robert "Duke" and Malvinia Porter Wilmore. He attended the Crockett Schools and was employed as a gardener most of his life.

"Tidy" Wilmore passed away on August 21, 2005, in the local hospital. Survivors are: sister; Dorothy L. Griffin of Crockett, special nephew and niece; Gregory and Eva Griffin of Crockett, 5 nephews; Bobby Ray Griffin and Andrew Griffin of Houston, Curtis Griffin of Crockett, Robert Wilmore Jr. and Bobby Wilmore of Colorado Springs

Colorado, 3 nieces; Dorinda and Rhonda Wilmore of Colorado Springs, Ira Ruff of Dallas, 3 aunts; Annie Lou McCullough, Barbara Berry of Crockett, Dorothy Adams of Houston, several grand and great grand nephews, cousins; Catherine "Precious" Smith, Rev. Betty Shepherd, and Mary Lou Jones of Crockett, other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by 3 brothers; Edward "Bush" Wilmore, George "Smut" Wilmore, Robert "Son" Wilmore.

Funeral services were held Saturday, August 27, 2005, 1 pm, Jesus Christ Victory Church, 206 Maple, Crockett, Rev. Detroit McCullough, pastor and officiant. Eternal resting place was in Rocky Mountain Cemetery, Crockett.

McClatchy-Coleburn Funeral Service