

Fodice

Felton "Honey" Wingwood

CROCKETT -- Services for Felton "Honey" Wingwood, 88, of Trinity were held Tuesday, Sept. 30, 2003, in the Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Lovelady with pastor the Rev. Lawrence Sowell, and the Rev. S.R. Dominique officiating.

Burial followed in the Fodice Cemetery in Lovelady.

Mr. Wingwood died Wednesday, Sept. 24, in Trinity.

He was born Sept. 28, 1914, in Lovelady, the son of the late Napoleon and Bertha Medlock Wingwood. At an early age, he joined Mt. Olive Baptist Church and was an active member.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Carl Wingwood; a sister, Ruby Masters; and one granddaughter, Wanda Kay Stubblefield.

Survivors include his wife, Ellen Morning Wingwood of Trinity; a son and daughter-in-law, Curtis and Bridgett Wingwood of El Paso; five daughters and a son-in-law, Vanettia Holman, Marie Stubblefield, MayNell and All Stewart of Trinity; Angela Pleasant and Brenda Ervin Purvis of Crockett; three sisters, Johnnie Spillar and Rosie Minor of Lovelady and Nell Wingwood of Nacogdoches; 16 grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild.

McClain-Cleburn Funeral Service directed the arrangements.