

Big Thicket Mesenger
1-13-2008

Wirick

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. Monday, December 24, 2007, for Gladys M. "Lynn" Stephens Wirick, 75, of Dayton, at the First United Methodist Church of Dayton. Burial followed at Magnolia Park Cemetery in Dayton.

She was born May 13, 1932 in Dayton, the daughter of Harold and Odell Mosley Stephens. She resided in the Dayton area throughout most of her life. She and her husband, Hal, owned and operated Dayton Auto Parts, and was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Dayton. She enjoyed sailing with her husband and spending time with her family.

She died on Friday, December 21, 2007 at the Memorial Hermann Hospital in Houston. Her husband of 53 years, Harold S. Wirick, Jr., grandchildren, Bailey and Samuel Wirick and daughter-in-law, Debbie Wirick, preceded her in death.

Survivors include her sons, Sam Wirick and wife, Marcie, and Gary Wirick and wife, Lillian, all of Dayton; grandson, Douglas Wirick of Dayton; brothers, Steve Stephens and wife, Sandra, Lloyd Stephens and wife, Billie, and Vernon Stephens Sr., all of Dayton; brother-in-law, Jim Wirick and wife, Betty, of Indiana and numerous nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Pace-Stancil Funeral Home, Dayton, was in charge of arrangements.