

HCC 12-2-1999

JAMES NATHAN WISE

Mr. James Nathan Wise, age 62 of Largo, Fl. Passed away Tuesday, Nov. 2, 1999, at his residence. He had lived in Florida for the past 12 years and prior to that for 15 years in Kennard. He was born Feb. 22, 1937, Middletown, Ohio and had lived there until moving to Kennard. He was employed in the Fabricating Plant at Armco Steel while living in Middletown and was the owner/operator of Wise Wheelchair in Largo for 10 years. He was a member of the Woodlawn Church of God in Largo and the Masonic Lodge of Eaton, Ohio and Crockett.

Mr. Wise was preceded in death by father James Woodrow Wise and step-father Earl Huffman.

Survivors include wife of 35 years Dorothy L. Wise; daughters Brenda Kulms and husband Rick of Grapeland and Toni Richey and husband Brent of Crockett; son James Nathan Wise, II and wife Tracey of St. Petersburg, Fl.; grandchildren Rick Kulms, Nikki Kulms, and Dustin Kulms all of Grapeland; Mollie Richey and Courtney Richey of Crockett and Taylor Wise of St. Petersburg, Fl.; mother Geraldine Dougherty and husband Don of Deltona, Fl.; brother Ronald Wells and wife Bonnie of Gratta, Ohio.

Funeral services for Mr. Wise were held Saturday, Nov. 6, 1999, at 11 a.m. at the Christian Assembly of God Church with Pastor Don Dolan officiating.

Interment followed at the Fairmount Cemetery, West Elkton, Ohio.

Memorial contributions may be made to Commercial Bank in Kennard.

Herrington Funeral Home