

A.L. "Buddy" Wood

DENISON – A.L. "Buddy" Wood, a long-time resident of Onalaska, was born Nov. 5, 1932 and died June 3, 2007.

He loved to fish on Lake Livingston and was known as someone with caring friends with whom he shared many happy memories.

A celebration of his life was held Saturday, June 16, at Triple Creek Marina by the water where his remains were spread as his final wish.

Survivors include his sons, Jesse King and wife Sue and Jody Wood and wife Ivon; daughters, Nita Lewis and husband David, Melba Hill and husband James and Brenda K. Bang and fiancé LaDon Davis; stepson, John Kennemer and wife Kelle; stepdaughters, Sue Troxtell and husband Billy and LaRonna Rice; grandchildren, Valerie, Jonathan, Becky, Shonna, Sabrina, Jessica, Brandon, Paul, Brittian, Skylar and Andrea; seven great-grandchildren; six step-grandchildren and seven step-great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his father, Jesse; mother, Melba; sister, Tod Stewart and former wife, Berta Wood.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Texoma HealthCare ICU unit in Denison, Texas.