

Shady Grove

ARMOND WOOLLEY

Mr. Armond Woolley, age 70 of Shady Grove, passed away Thursday, July 24, 2003 in the East Texas Medical Center-Crockett. Mr. Woolley was born May 26, 1933 in Shady Grove and had lived in Shady Grove all of his lifetime. Mr. Woolley was a retired bricklayer and was a member of the Shady Grove Baptist Church where he served as a deacon. Mr. Woolley was also a member of the Lothrop Lodge #21 AF & AM, Promise Keepers, and president of the Shady Grove Cemetery Association. Mr. Woolley was a past member of the Huntsville and Crockett Fire Departments.

Survivors include his wife Delmer Woolley, of Shady Grove; children Deidra Stephens and husband Kelly, of Shady Grove, Joseph (Bubba) Woolley and wife Melinda, of Lovelady; grandchildren Kody Stephens, KaLeigh Stephens, Kolton Stephens, Jatrina Frizzell and husband Jason, Tosha Wosika, and Chandra Wosika; mother Vera Mae Woolley, of Crockett; brothers Eddie Woolley and wife Kelly, of Marble Falls, Don Woolley, of Crockett; sisters Joy Hodges and husband Bobby, Sandra Holcomb, all of Crockett; numerous nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Preceded in death by his father Allen E. Woolley.

Graveside funeral services for Mr. Armond Woolley were held Sunday, July 27, at 5:00 p.m. in the Shady Grove Cemetery with the Rev. Albert Harris and the Rev. Bob Thompson officiating. Interment followed.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home