

JAMES A. WRIGHT

James A. Wright, 70, of Bangs, Tex., died August 19, 2001 in Bangs. Born November 13, 1930 in Fargo, Ohio. A retired machinist operator, he was a member of the First Baptist Church of Bangs, and was also a member of the American Legion Post, where he was Vice Commander and lifetime member of the VFW. He was also a veteran of the Korean War, serving in the United States Air Force. He married Opal Hughes on March 22, 1969 in Newport, Kentucky.

He is survived by his wife, Opal Wright; son Darryl Wright of Columbus; daughters Deborah Helleris of Arizona, and Kristi Wright of Columbus; step-sons Gerald Overturf of Bangs, and Harry Deckard, and wife Barbara of San Angelo; step-daughters Juanita Nott, and husband Don of Johnstown, Ohio; Susie Carpenter and Rita Barnes, both of Bangs; 24 grandchildren; numerous great-grandchildren; brothers Joseph Wright of Michigan, and John Wright of Florida.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a sister, Mary Ann Hazelton, and grandchildren Brian Harmon and Chris Yantis.

Funeral services were held August 23 at 10 a.m. in the Davis-Morris Funeral Home Chapel in Brownwood. Dr. Lee Evans officiating. Interment at Bangs City Cemetery.

Davis-Morris Funeral Home

Vet list