

U.S. ARMY SPECIALIST CARL ALLEN EASON

U. S. Army Specialist Carl Allen Eason, age 29, of Lovelady, passed away Monday, October 23, 2006 in Baghdad, Iraq. Specialist Eason was born May 24, 1977 in Galveston and had lived in Lovelady most of his lifetime. Specialist Eason was a 1996 graduate of Lovelady High School. Specialist Eason was a Specialist in the U. S. Army and was serving in Operation Iraqi Freedom. Specialist Eason was a member of the Lovelady Fire Department and attended the First Baptist Church in Lovelady.

Survivors include his parents Susan and Martin Boedeker, of Lovelady; wife Johnna Eason, of Lovelady; children Matthew Eason, of Huntsville, Courtney Eason and Logan James Eason, of Lovelady; brothers James "Big" Eason, of Houston, and Robert LaRue, of Austin; half brother Mack Gardner, of Okla.; sister Melissa Burns, of Cedar Park; grandmother Shirley Graffin of Stoughton, Wis.; grandfather Martin M. Boedeker, of Shiner; aunts and uncles Louis and Wanda Graffin, of Fort Atkinson, Wis., Linda and Gene LaRue, of Lovelady, Allen and Martha Eason, of Dallas and Dorothy and Henry Duke of Mo.; nieces Emily and Veronica Burns, of Cedar Park; special cousins Michelle Boedeker, of San Marcos, Donna Alexander, of Trinity; numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and other relatives; many honorary brothers and sisters.

Preceded in death by his father Mack Eason; grandfather Benno Graffin; and grandmother Adeline Boedeker.

Funeral services for U. S. Army Specialist Carl Allen Eason will be held Thursday, November 2, at 2:30 p.m. in the Lovelady Old Gym with Full Military Honors officiated by the Rev. Scott Matthews.

Honorary Pallbearers are Robert LaRue, Chris Easton, Mark Broxson, Rodger Valenzuela, Gilbert Chavez, Byron Alphin, Lovelady Fire Department, Gene Clark, Robert Burns, John Fulcher, Scott Graffin, Lynn Glawsen, Michael Thomas and Bo Fulcher.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Lovelady Volunteer Fire Department, P. O. Box 83, Lovelady, Texas 75851 or the Veterans Museum, Huntsville, Texas.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home