

ELLA MAE STRONG

Funeral services for Mrs. Ella Mae Strong age 70, were held Saturday, January 6, 2006, 2 pm, Mt. Olive Baptist Church, Post Oak Community, Crockett, the pastor, Rev. Lavern Gambrell, officiated.

She was laid to rest in Giles-Huntley Cemetery.

Casketbearers were; Cannon Ellis, Patrick Woodard, Jim Anderson, George Davis II, Conandus Johnson, Charles Martin.

Ella Mae Strong was born on September 12, 1936 in the Post Oak Community to the late Ella Hamilton and Harold Carr. She married the late James Davis and to this union 4 children were born. Later she married the late Grady Strong and resided in Tyler many years.

At an early age she joined Anderson Chapel United Methodist Church, then several years later joined Mt. Olive Baptist Church where she sang in the choir and remained faithful until her demise.

She passed away on January 2, 2007 in the local hospital.

She was Preceded in death by siblings, Lena Green, Steve Green, and Robbie Mae Delton.

Survivors are: sons; George Davis (Beverly), Mary Taylor (John), Joyce Phillips (Charles), and Pearlie Mae Davis also known as "Brenda" of Crockett, adopted children; Robert Strong (Elaine) of Houston, Grady Strong Jr. (Ester) of Atlanta, Liz Hamilton of Palestine, David and Charles Woods of Plantersville, sisters; Obelia Purvis (Troy), Viola Hackett of Crockett, brothers; Willie Roy Carr (Doris), Thomas Green (Joyce), Willie Hamilton (Loyce), 19 grandchildren, 11 great-great-grandchildren, play brothers; John Johnson and Billy Oneal, special friend; Moses Wilkerson.

McClain-Clebourn Funeral Service